

UJICY&AKITA UNIVERSITY

Innovation Seminar Series 2024

“Development of Advanced Metallurgical Process for the Sustainability”

This open dialogue will jointly discuss trends in the metallurgical technologies for resource supply in Japan and around the world. The technical challenges, future innovation, and research targets are included under this agenda. Current research and development on the metallurgy are being towards to solve the industrial issue and global agendas such as climate change, carbon neutralities and sustainability.

by Prof. Atsushi Shibayama,
Director, Research Institute of Global Resources (RIGRe) of Akita University, Japan

Tuesday, February 13, 2024

10:00 -13:00

At Uzbek-Japan Innovation Center of Youth, Tashkent

